

Karina Eshilian
Sales Representative
Performance Contracting, Inc.

With oversight of sales and marketing efforts in Southern California, Karina Eshilian has more than 16 years of experience in the commercial construction industry with Performance Contracting, Inc. Karina is a powerful force in the relationship development space for her organization by creating brand awareness, increasing visibility, and developing strategic partnerships. “In order to build business, you need to build connections – partnerships, friendships – it’s the lasting impressions that are memorable,” she shares.

Karina is determined to continue to be a front-runner for Women in Construction and serve as an example for female leadership. A Cal State Fullerton Titan alum and former Girl Scout Troop Leader, Karina resides in Yorba Linda with her husband and two young children. A self-proclaimed laundry nerd, she enjoys working out, travelling, and exploring new places during her spare time.
